

Aegis Logistics Limited

Allotment of Land at Mangalore Port

Aegis Group, a Leader in Oil, Gas and Chemical Logistics, today announces the allotment of 3 acres of land at Mangalore Port to build a Storage Terminal. The land is allotted on a lease for a period of 30 years by New Mangalore Port Trust.

New Mangalore port ranks 3rd, in terms of POL traffic handled among Major Ports of India. In FY15 New Mangalore port catered 12% of POL traffic handled by Major Ports

With this land allocation, Aegis Logistics will expand its presence to Six Ports of India – Mumbai, Pipavav, Kandla, Kochi, Haldia, and New Mangalore. These ports together manage 70% of POL Traffic handled by the Major Ports in India.

Commenting on the land allotment Mr. Anish Chandaria, Managing Director & CEO said

“Aegis Group is continuing with its strategy of building a necklace of terminals along the Indian coastline. With addition of Mangalore port, Aegis Group has entered another major port in India taking its presence to six ports. The land allotment at Mangalore fits well with its strategy to add more terminals to our portfolio, offering its customers logistics services throughout India at every gateway into and out of India.”
